

Healthy Universities: Notification of Forthcoming Events

English Healthy Universities Network Meeting incorporating Themed Learning Sessions and Workshops: Student and Staff Experience, Performance and Wellbeing

Date: Wednesday 07 March 2012

Time: 09.30am-4.00pm

Venue: Nottingham Trent University

This will combine a National Network meeting with themed learning sessions and workshops on student and staff experience, performance and wellbeing.

The day will commence with the Network business meeting from 09:30-11:15. This will be followed by learning sessions and interactive workshops, incorporating dissemination of the Healthy University Guidance Packages.

Speakers/facilitators:

- Prof. Neil Gorman: Vice-Chancellor – Nottingham Trent University
- Dame Carol Black: Government's Director of Health and Work
- Dr Ian Kenvyn: Associate Principal Lecturer, Leeds Trinity University College
- Sarah Bustard: Health Promotion Specialist – Nottingham Trent University
- Sally Olohan MBE: Head of Student Services – Nottingham Trent University
- Dr Mark Dooris: Reader in Health and Sustainable Development / Director of Healthy Settings Unit – UCLan
- Dr Sue Powell – Manager, Academy of Health and Well-Being, MMU

The day promises to be extremely interesting and valuable in supporting the further development of Healthy Universities – and you may well wish to forward this invitation to colleagues working in relevant fields within your institution.

Places are free but limited in number: deadline for registration 20 January 2012 – sbrookes2@uclan.ac.uk

To book your place / request further details contact:
Sandra Brookes, Healthy Settings Development Unit, UCLan
Tel: 01772 895575, Email: sbrookes2@uclan.ac.uk

Developing Governance and Leadership for Healthy Universities: Final Project Conference incorporating Themed Learning Sessions and Workshops

Date: Tuesday 19 June 2012

Time: 09.30am-4.00pm

Venue: University of Central Lancashire

This celebratory event will mark the close of the HEFCE-funded Healthy Universities Project, reflecting on achievements and looking to the future.

The day will incorporate themed learning sessions and workshops on Health and Sustainable Development, Communicating Health and Student and Staff Mental Wellbeing, incorporating dissemination of the Healthy University Guidance Packages.

Speakers/facilitators:

- Dr Malcolm McVicar: Vice-Chancellor – UCLan (invited)
- Prof. Mala Rao, Professor of International Health at University of East London / Honorary Adviser to Administrative Staff College of India in Hyderabad
- Toby Hopwood, Communications, National Social Marketing Centre (invited)
- Prof. Judy Orme, Professor in Public Health and Sustainability / Co-director of Institute for Sustainability, Health and Environment, UWE
- Phil Scarffe, Mental Health Co-ordinator, Nottingham Trent University
- Dr Ian Kenvyn: Associate Principal Lecturer, Leeds Trinity University College
- Hazel Wright, Health and Wellbeing Co-ordinator, Student Services, Teesside University
- Sharon Doherty, Healthy University Co-ordinator, University of Central Lancashire
- Dr Mark Dooris: Reader in Health and Sustainable Development / Director of Healthy Settings Unit – UCLan
- Dr Sue Powell – Manager, Academy of Health and Well-Being, MMU

Further details to follow – please register your interest - sbrookes2@uclan.ac.uk

To book your place / request further details contact:
Sandra Brookes, Healthy Settings Development Unit, UCLan
Tel: 01772 895575, Email: sbrookes2@uclan.ac.uk